

TESTIMONY FOR AND AGAINST FRANK IS BEFORE GOVERNOR

REVIEW OF THE TRIAL BY SOLICITOR DORSEY AGAINST COMMUTATION AND BY W. M. HOWARD IN FAVOR OF SAME. FOUR HOURS FOR ARGUMENT.

RECORDS ARE REFERRED TO

Both Declare Accounts of Trial Will Bear Out Their Cases—Dorsey Attempts to Show Guilt Even With the Testimony of the Negro Eliminated.

Atlanta, Ga., June 14.—The testimony for and against Leo M. Frank, which was presented at his trial on the charge of murdering Mary Phagan, and in subsequent court proceedings, was exhaustively reviewed before Governor Slaton at today's session of the hearing on Frank's application for commutation of his death sentence. Shortly after 6 o'clock tonight, the hearing was adjourned until Wednesday. When it is resumed, W. M. Howard will complete his argument in favor of Frank and the case then finally will be submitted to the governor.

Solicitor Dorsey in a four hours' argument today against commutation undertook to convince the governor of Frank's guilt on the testimony of other witnesses than Jim Conley, the negro, who was convicted as an accessory after the murder. Eliminating Conley's evidence, Mr. Dorsey sought to show how incidents and circumstances surrounding the crime as testified to, pointed to Frank as the perpetrator.

Mr. Howard also relied on the record to show Frank's innocence. He declared that the trail of the murder led from the "murder notes" found beside the girl's body and which Conley testified he wrote, to Frank. The attorney attacked Conley's affidavits and testimony and asserted that his story was "a cunning invention of Conley's own mind, contrived to save his own life and place the blame of the law around the neck of another."

In opening his argument, Mr. Howard referred to the argument against Frank's application made last Saturday by former Gov. Joseph M. Brown.

The former governor intimated it would be an abuse of the executive power to commute a sentence unless extraneous to that passed upon by the courts were presented. "I would like to call your attention to the fact that just before Governor Brown went out of office he issued forty pardons, commutations or paroles, of which twenty-five were in murder cases."

Taking up his reply to Mr. Dorsey, he said: "Eliminating Conley's testimony, there is nothing in the circumstantial evidence to connect Frank with the murder of Mary Phagan. The only point in this record where Frank is coupled with the crime is in the allegation of his connection with the writing of the murder notes and on this point there is only Conley's story that Frank dictated them to him."

Mr. Howard declared Conley had testified that on his way to the factory on the morning of the murder he had drunk beer, wine and whiskey. In five years, he said, the negro had served seven sentences for violation of the municipal laws of Atlanta. That, said Mr. Howard, was the kind of person that crouched at the foot of the stairs as Mary Phagan came down. Her mesh bag containing her money, never has been found. "The testimony," Mr. Howard continued, "shows there was evidence that the little girl had been assaulted. Murder to conceal the robbery and assault would be the natural thought of a negro to save his own life."

"The murder notes were not the mental efforts of Frank," he declared, "for they bear the language, style and form of expression of Conley."

Mr. Howard went into Conley's various affidavits and testimony in detail, pointing out discrepancies. He also attacked the testimony and veracity of other state witnesses.

It is immaterial that Monteen Stover was in Frank's office between 12:05 and 12:10 on the day of the murder and Frank was not there, said Howard. "We know Frank was not killing Mary Phagan at that time, for she had not arrived there. The testimony shows that Mary Phagan could not have reached Frank's office until 12:13 p. m."

"Is that time accepted by both sides as the time of Miss Phagan's arrival?" asked Governor Slaton.

"No," replied Mr. Dorsey, "the state contended that she reached the factory at the time Frank stated, 12:05 p. m."

"We will leave the record to show which side is correct on this point," said Mr. Howard.

At this stage, the hearing was adjourned until Wednesday.

Innes and Wife Are Denied Bail by the U. S. Supreme Court

Washington, June 14.—The supreme court today denied bail for Mr. and Mrs. Victor Innes, held in Texas for extradition to Georgia to answer to an indictment of larceny after trust.

The Inneses were extradited from Oregon to answer to a charge of murder, of which they were acquitted. They contended they could not be held in Texas for another crime.

In announcing the denial the court rendered no decision on the contested point of whether the Texas courts may grant bail during the appeal. Solicitor General Dorsey of Atlanta opposed the petition for bail.

Refuse to Comment.

San Antonio, June 14.—Neither Victor E. Innes nor his wife would make any comment on the action of the United States supreme court in refusing to grant them bail. The Inneses, who are taken to mean that they will have to remain in jail here until the court can pass on the appeal, carried to the supreme court on application for writs of habeas corpus. If the decision of the lower courts are sustained Innes and his wife will be taken back to Georgia to face trial there on an indictment charging misappropriation of funds held in trust.

Howard D. Gregory Is Killed at Temple

Temple, Tex., June 14.—A fatal accident occurred in the freight yards of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway company here this morning in which Howard D. Gregory, aged 22 years, one of the best known young men of this city, met almost instant death.

The young man, who was night clerk for the railway company, had started to affix lead seals to the doors of two automobile cars standing on the main line and while between the cars a heavy engine shoveled additional cars on the track which, crashing into the others, among which Gregory was working, took out the slack and he was caught between two drawbars and terribly crushed, living less than two hours after the accident.

The act of sealing the cars was the last of his duties for the night and when finished he was about to go off duty. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gregory, are pioneer residents of Temple. Funeral services will be conducted here.

SUMMARY OF WAR

All the late advices concerning the progress of events along the important battle front in Galicia come from Vienna and from Berlin.

These reports bring reverses to the Russians from Jaroslau almost to the Bukovina frontier. Heavy Russian losses, both in killed and wounded and in prisoners, are emphasized in the Austro-German official statement.

Near Moskiska, 16,000 Russians are said to have been taken. The Russian line east and southeast from Jaroslau has been pierced and the Russians have been compelled to retreat. At other points the Russians have been routed or driven back—this according to Vienna.

The Russian war office has been silent on the latest phase of the situation, as no official statement has been issued during the last twenty-four hours, but recent advices from Petrograd indicated that the Austro-Germans were attacking heavily in various sectors.

In the western war zone the much-referred-to sector north of Arras is still the scene of the heaviest fighting. For weeks the French have daily pressed their attacks, gaining ground

REFUSES TO REVIEW CASH REGISTER CASE

SUPREME COURT'S DECISION IS CONSIDERED IMPORTANT BY DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

Was Thought to Be the Most Important Under the Anti-Trust Laws.

Washington, June 14.—Refusal of the supreme court today to review the action of the Sixth circuit court of appeals in reversing the conviction of the National Cash Register officials of violations of the Sherman law, spelled another defeat for the government in what its legal officers regard as the most important prosecution ever instituted under the criminal section of the anti-trust law.

Chief Justice White announced the court's decision along with the announcement of the details of application for review in a dozen or more cases. No reasons were assigned and no indications given as to whether the refusal was based on lack of jurisdiction to review a criminal case or on the application of the government or on approval of the law as laid down by the circuit court judges and Justice Day, who sat in this case.

At the department of justice tonight while no official statement was issued, it frankly was admitted that the government had considered the Cash Register case the strongest that could possibly be brought under the criminal provisions of the Sherman law and that failure of this case was accepted as meaning that criminal prosecution under the law would almost certainly fail.

Under the decision of the circuit court of appeals the government now may take the case back to the trial court in an effort to make effective the remaining counts in the indictment against the Cash Register defendants. Officials of the department said this course had not been fully considered and for the present there will be no announcement of the government's purpose.

The first important defeat suffered by the government in its effort to enforce the criminal features of the Sherman law came a year ago when the supreme court set aside the conviction of officials of the American Naval Stores company because of erroneous instructions of the trial court.

Appendix Comes in for Discussion by Physicians Tonight

Entire program of the McLennan County Medical association meeting tonight, will be devoted to a discussion of the causes and results of appendicitis, and how a permanent cure may be effected.

The meeting tonight, and the one to be held on July 6 will conclude the sessions during the summer months, and a large attendance is expected at both of these gatherings.

The association will hold its fall session on Sept. 7, when a special program will be prepared to usher in the cool months.

The interest exhibited by the city physicians in the last few meetings have encouraged the president and secretary of the association to greater effort, and the importance of the club will no doubt assume larger proportions when the new season starts.

The program for tonight's meeting follows: "Etiology of Appendicitis," Dr. J. T. Harrington.

"Diagnosis of Appendicitis," Dr. H. M. Lanham.

"Pathology of Appendicitis," Dr. Doyle L. Mastland.

"Typical Cases of Appendicitis," Dr. J. W. Hays.

"Appendicitis in Children," Dr. K. H. Aynesworth.

"Appendicitis in Pregnancy," Dr. W. L. Crosthwait.

"Surgical Treatment of Appendicitis in the Various Forms of Appendicitis," Dr. R. J. Alexander.

Captain Craddock to Make Pen Probe

Austin, June 14.—Captain W. T. Craddock, personal representative of Governor Ferguson, was today detailed to make an investigation of the physical condition of the state penitentiary system, this being independent of the probe now in progress by the senate investigation committee. W. R. Dulaney of Williamson county, who was appointed by Governor Ferguson to succeed W. O. Stamps, reached here today and will have a conference with the governor relative to penitentiary affairs. Mr. Dulaney with Captain Craddock leaves tonight for Huntsville, the former to get in touch with the affairs of the penitentiary system, for he is to qualify on July 1. The governor is gathering information for use in proposed penitentiary legislation at the special session this winter.

It was understood that the dozen or more street cars carrying the mails from the main postoffice to the substations in various parts of the city would be operated as usual.

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of public schools, asserted that the schools without interruption, although the problem of transporting 7,000 teachers gave grave concern. Arrangements to furnish 5,000 strike breakers to operate cars and guard property were put into operation today. Agents of the two electric lines had arranged, it was said, to provide quarters for strikers in several large hotels. Employment agencies did a record-breaking business in procuring men for strike-breaking duty.

Banquet halls, sample rooms and even the roofs of the large downtown hotels have been converted into sleeping quarters for nearly 15,000 persons who will be obliged to live near the place of business during the strike. The demand for cots to be placed in office buildings was exceedingly brisk. Thousands of persons have planned to sleep in their offices. Managers of theatres within the business district announced that they would close unless the strike were settled speedily. Baseball at the National league park, the only Chicago club now on the home grounds, probably will be postponed after today's game. The closing of some of the big summer parks in the outlying districts was regarded as certain.

CHICAGO BUSINESS AND PLEASURE HIT BY CARMEN'S STRIKE

FIRST DAY AFTER WALK OUT PASSES WITHOUT DISTURBANCES OF ANY CHARACTER SAVE INCONVENIENCES TO DOWNTOWN WORKERS.

1,000 POLICEMEN TO BE ADDED

Officials of the City Do Not Accept Present Quiet as Permanent and Are Preparing for Trouble When the Companies Start Operating With Non-Union Labor.

Chicago, June 14.—The first day of the big Chicago street car strike passed without serious mishap. No surface cars were run and only a few trains on the elevated. There was nothing resembling regular service except on the suburban lines of the steam railroads and these were far from adequate. A brick thrown through a window of an elevated train was the only violence.

The strike was the big question before the regular meeting of the city council tonight. Various resolutions looking to a settlement were proposed. One would pledge the city, which is a partner in the profit of the surface lines, to pay a proportionate share of any advances granted the men. Another suggested that a mediation board of five aldermen be appointed.

All manner of vehicles were pressed into service, even roller skates among some of the younger generation. The city police were ordered to their places of employment. The great thoroughfares through the poorer districts such as Blue Island avenue, Clay street, Milwaukee avenue and Clark street, in traversing which the pedestrians may hear spoken most of the languages of the world, were black with people trudging to work. They overflowed from the sidewalks on to the pavements. The streets had the appearance, except for the general good humor with which it was accepted, of the avenues of some city in the war zone, from which the population was fleeing.

The city of the day was not accepted by the authorities as being tranquil. Chief of Police Healy said he would ask authority to send 1,000 extra policemen to be available in event of disorder when the companies make a real effort to operate.

Rain Adds to Discomfort.

A drizzling rain most of the day added to the discomfort of the city. The city was not accepted by the authorities as being tranquil. Chief of Police Healy said he would ask authority to send 1,000 extra policemen to be available in event of disorder when the companies make a real effort to operate.

The strikers demand a guarantee of a wage increase. Officials of the companies refused this demand. They met it, they said, by offering to mean an increase of $1,000,000 annually. W. D. Mahon, international president of the Street Car Men's union, attended the conference.

Approximately 3,000 families have collected on the two electric systems daily. The surface lines collect 2,400,000 and the elevated 600,000. There are 312 street cars on the elevated lines and 1513 on the elevated, which operates 215 miles of track. The surface line operates 1095 miles.

Hurried preparations were made to bring to work today the great armies of clerks in stores, office workers and others in business in the downtown district. Hundreds of trains loaded with strike breakers did a rushing business and the "jitney" busses, which heretofore have failed to make much progress in the transportation problem, were loaded with passengers. Hurriedly big moving trucks also were pressed into service.

Mail Delivery Affected. Delivery of the United States mails puzzled the postoffice officials. Reorganization of the street car delivery system will have to be contracted to 265 bales against 1,360,223 bales last year, and in independent warehouses 2,441,133 bales, against 947,043 bales last year.

Exports in May were 615,000 bales, against 394,714 bales last year, and for the ten months 7,975,711 bales, against 8,729,012 bales in last year's period.

Imports were 46,173 bales, against 46,114 bales last year, and for the ten months 397,442 bales against 394,714 bales in last year's period.

Linters used 42,344 bales, against 28,877 bales last year, and for the ten months 295,342 bales, against 258,196 bales last year.

Manufacturing establishments 174,242 bales, against 94,244 bales last year, and in independent warehouses 164,691 bales, against 8,003 bales last year. Linters exported were 18,708 bales.

Spindles active during May 31,111,137, against 31,028,335 last year.

VILLA'S REPLY IN HANDS OF OFFICIALS

MEXICAN LEADER SAYS HE HAS URGED CONFERENCE WITH GENERAL CARRANZA.

On Reply to This Note Depends the Next Move in the Situation.

Washington, June 14.—The United States formally was notified today by General Villa in behalf of the Mexican convention forces that he had telegraphed General Carranza urging a conference for the restoration of peace and constitutional government in Mexico.

This step is the first tangible development resulting from President Wilson's recent warning to all Mexican factions that unless they came to an agreement among themselves soon some other means would be employed by the United States to relieve the suffering population from further devastations of the military element. On Carranza's reply depends the next move in the situation.

Coincidentally, the state department was advised by Mabel Boardman of the American Red Cross that the Mexican authorities at Piedras Negras had denied entry to a carload of foodstuffs, consigned for the relief of people in the border.

Consul General Blocker is endeavoring to use his good offices to arrange for the transportation of the supplies. Until Consul Blocker reports on the details, the state department will take no further action.

The announcement that General Villa had initiated a movement for peace was received with satisfaction in official quarters. Enrique C. Llorente, Washington representative of the Villa-Zapata coalition, called on Secretary Lansing with a copy of the Villa telegram to Carranza and a long note from General Villa replying to President Wilson's recent pronouncement of policy.

The note referred appreciatively to the president's efforts and outlined the views of the Villa-Zapata efforts to bring about a reconciliation with those of Carranza.

In the message to Carranza, dated June 11, stress is laid upon President Wilson's urging that the United States would be "obliged to decide on other methods" should a coalition of the factions prove futile.

The telegram was signed by General Villa and M. Diaz Lombardo.

Departmental and Pen Bills Are Signed by Governor Ferguson

Austin, June 14.—The governor today signed the departmental and penitentiary appropriation bills. All bills passed by the special session of the Thirty-fourth legislature have now been disposed of by the executive. The miscellaneous bill as approved by the governor carries $262,972.22, the governor having vetoed but one item in the measure, that of $415,000 for renovation of the capitol. In the departmental bill there is an item of $125,000 for the improvement of the capitol which was allowed to stand by the governor. The departmental bill carries $1,518,212. Only one item in it was vetoed by the governor, that being $1800, which was a duplication.

The appropriation of $465,000 to pay current expenses of the state prison system was approved without a change.

No items in the educational and eleemosynary appropriation bills, approved some time ago by the governor, were vetoed.

Increase in Use of Cotton Over 1914

Washington, June 14.—Cotton used during May was 493,697 bales, exclusive of linters, compared with 466,744 bales in May last year, the census bureau announced today.

During the ten months ending May 31, 1915, there were 4,585,522 bales, against 4,731,600 bales in the same period the previous year.

Cotton on hand May 31, in manufacturing establishments, was 1,768,000 bales, against 1,360,223 bales last year, and in independent warehouses 2,441,133 bales, against 947,043 bales last year.

Webb-Kenyon Liquor Case Disposed of by U. S. Supreme Court

Washington, June 14.—The supreme court of the United States disposed of the so-called Kentucky Webb-Kenyon liquor cases without determining the constitutionality of the Webb-Kenyon law today.

The Kentucky case was a prosecution of the Adams Express company for bringing liquor for personal use from Tennessee into Whitley county, Kentucky, "dry territory." Justice Day for the court held it was bound to accept the dictum of the Kentucky court of appeals that the Webb-Kenyon law was not applicable. Under that decision the conviction of the express company was set aside.

Merchants of the city will be visited by a committee from the Chamber of Commerce to learn the extent of their co-operation in the plan to give away an automobile each month to the customers of merchant members of the organization. West Virginia Must Pay Part Old Debt

Washington, June 14.—The supreme court today decided the long standing Virginia-West Virginia debt case, holding West Virginia should pay $12,332,929 as its net share of the Virginia debt at the time of the partition of the state.

The report of the special master was upheld in all particulars except one minor finding. The court held that West Virginia was entitled to its share of the assets arising from the Exchange principal debt and fixed that amount at $2,266,000. West Virginia is required by the court to pay $8,178,900 in interest computed at three per cent, from 1891 to date and four per cent from 1891 to 1931.

Two French Warships Bombard Tohesme

London, June 14, 7:10 p. m.—A report has reached Athens from the island of Chios that two French warships entered the port of Tohesme, in Asia Minor, forty miles southwest of Smyrna. According to this report, forwarded by the Greek correspondents, the warships must wait another day, as the house of common rose this evening without Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, having made the expected announcement.

The call amount of the Greek elections are not yet available, but the triumph of M. Venizelos, former premier, seems certain. The continued illness of the Greek king may prevent the victory of the war party from having any immediate results.

Great Britain, which had braced itself for the shock of announcement of the issue of another $2,500,000 war loan, must wait another day, as the house of common rose this evening without Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, having made the expected announcement.

Cammetti Loses His Fight in the Supreme Court United States

Washington, June 14.—F. Drew Cammetti lost his fight today in the supreme court for a court at San Francisco on charges of violating the Mann white slave act. The court denied the application without opinion.

Cammetti, a commissioner general of immigration, was found guilty with Maury I. Dicks of transporting, for improper purposes, two girls from Sacramento, Cal., to Reno, Nev.

This was the first case under the Mann law to reach the supreme court in which the commercial element was involved. The review was asked on the ground that the law is not applicable to cases in which only immorality is involved and that, further, if it is applicable, it is unconstitutional.

The court's announcement, quashed for a reconsideration of the refusal to review the Cammetti case and applied for a review of Dicks' conviction. Dicks was sentenced to two years' imprisonment and a fine of $2,000.

Cattlemen Protest Against Increase in Freight Rates

Austin, Tex., June 14.—The Texas railroad commission today heard a number of prominent Texas cattlemen in protest against the proposed advance in rates on the shipment of live stock. The majority of the witnesses declared unhesitatingly that the industry could not stand an increase in railroad rates, while others frankly admitted that even if they believed the purchase of ranch lands in the early '80s.

Although today's hearing dragged along considerably, it was far from being dry, for every phase of the cattle raising industry was touched upon, and stories were told on the witness stand of vast fortunes made through the purchase of ranch lands in the early '80s.

As was promised Friday, when the hearing on the exhibit was begun, the resolution passed at the recent convention of the Cattle Raisers' association in San Antonio was a matter of contention throughout today, the carriers maintaining that the majority of cattlemen were not unthankfully opposed to an increase, and that there was nothing in the text of the resolution stating that the industry could not afford to yield more revenue to the railroads. The cattlemen on the stand protested that their resolution was merely intended to express the

W. T. Rogers was declared elected a school trustee in the Frost district by the county commissioners' court yesterday morning, the vote being declared Rogers 38, G. A. Stanfield 31. Rogers was the candidate of the faction which desires the location of the new school building at Lakeview. Stanfield representing the Lacy Summit adherents. The vote was a tie at the regular election and the results announced yesterday were of a special election.

Ties in other districts were also voted off results at the special elections being declared yesterday by the commissioners as follows: Speegleville district No. 62, J. H. Youngblood 46, W. W. Moore 36; Harris Creek district No. 45, George Williams elected unanimously; Elk district No. 92, L. A. Johnson 14, S. F. Pearson 9, H. C. Davis 2, J. W. Young 1.

County Engineer and Road Superintendent R. J. Windrow submitted his bond of $10,000 and it was approved.

Make your food more
tempting with Cottolene

For making cakes, pies and pastry—for all shortening and frying—Cottolene is supreme.

Cottolene

Cottolene is an exact combination of the purest, richest, most carefully refined cottonseed oil and the choicest beef tallow obtained from selected, high grade leaf beef suet. Cottolene is itself one of the purest of pure foods. Cottolene makes foods more digestible—more wholesome—makes them taste better.

It is an original product and better than anything else that you can use for shortening or frying. Use a third less of Cottolene than of any other shortening or frying fat. Always heat Cottolene slowly. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply.

When You Wash Your Hair Don't Use Soap

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain multistep coconut oil for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soap or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

"I was afflicted with tuberculosis for two years. Had two doctors for 18 months. Was unable to attend to my work. Could not walk two blocks without resting. "I can conscientiously recommend Lung-Vita to anyone afflicted with tuberculosis. I am sure it will do for them what it has done for me." That is what Walter Justice says. He lives at 422 Fifth Ave., N. Nashville, Tenn.

Lung-Vita conquers consumption by destroying the tuberculosis germs and by building up and strengthening the weakened tissues. It is not a temporary stimulant. Contains no poison or habit-forming drugs. If you have lung trouble or asthma,

"The Island of Regeneration."

A picturization of one of Cyrus Townsend Brundage's novels, "The Island of Regeneration," with Edith Storey and a large Vitaphone cast, is a six-part story of two castaways on a South Pacific island, as shown at the Hippodrome today and for the last time tomorrow.

It is one of the Vitaphone's greatest achievements, for the highly colored tale is a series of beautiful pictures that move from Virginia in the seventies to the southern isle, and from social affairs in Frisco to a tableau of Edith Storey as a crouching nymph beside a pool.

Oh, yes, the nude in the motion picture art has arrived, for this fine actress, in order to properly present the story, must needs join her sister player of another film in the unclothed tableau. There is nothing offensive in the picture. Miss Storey is shown bathing in a secluded pool on the lonesome isle, and as she had few clothes she had to swim in nature's clothing. When she crouches hidden in a secret cave above the water the posture is artistic and with no touch of undue revelation. As she lithely swims about her poses are those of unconscious grace.

The story is of a society girl who goes a-cruising with a yachtman in defiance of conventions. When he eventually attempts to win her by force she jumps into a gasoline launch, in which she drifts to a lone island. On it lives a man who was cast away there as a boy. She would teach him English but he learns—love. Three years after rescue comes, but because lying accusation destroys his faith in her, she makes him believe she has ended her life.

He goes to America, but after more years returns to her. It is all pictured in entrancing fashion.

"The Living Death," a Thrilling Drama With an All-Star Cast.

Dr. Farrell loves with a consuming selfishness his only child, Naida. When the young men begin to pay her too marked attentions, Farrell takes his daughter to a beautiful but lonely place on the California coast, where he can be reasonably sure of keeping her to himself. But the romantic fates are not to be so easily forestalled. Tom O'Day arrives at Santa Lina to open his bungalow. He and Naida meet and fall deeply in love. The doctor discovers that Santa Lina is built over the buried remains of an old leper colony. A few days later he and Naida come upon O'Day, who has just un-up the reservoir upon which the power of the mine depends. These are only a few of the thrills that keep you breathless—hanging on to the arms of your seat. The final climax where Big Bill and his partner discover their enemy is the most stirring of all.

A pulse-stirring battle with bare fists in which Big Bill bests a score of drink-crazed miners in a fight, that for sheer thrills and heart-catching excitement has never been excelled on stage or screen, is one of the big features of this super-picture.

Then, too, there is a splendid double love story which leaves a happy glow in the spectator's mind. In fact, "The Plunderer" is as perfect a photoplay as has yet been achieved, and deals with clean, manly men, affecting sentiment, the lust for yellow gold and swift, dynamic drama.

There are a number of very good voices in the Texas company and several good dancers. The ladies wear handsome evening gowns throughout the performance.

Texas himself, of course, is the feature of the show, performing feats of strength all the more marvelous because in stature he is not an extraordinary man. The muscles of his shoulders and neck, however, have been developed so abnormally that with them he is able to perform feats which the combined efforts of several other men would find impossible. He bends iron pipes of one, two and even three inches in diameter simply by snapping them across the back of his neck, then restores them to original straightness by repeating the operation across his stomach. As the finale of his act Texas raises all the girls in the company on the pipe which rests upon his neck.

The first part of the performance is devoted to song numbers of solos, duets and choruses.

The second portion of the program was given over to the newer dances, a "tango revue." The third act presented a cabaret scene with more creditable numbers. — South Bend News-Times.

"TEXAS" PLEASES SOUTH BEND.

"Texas" did not disappoint in his promise to show an unprecedented feat of physical strength Monday noon when he pulled eight buggy loads of young women through the city by a rope attached to his neck. (The feat was performed as per schedule, a large crowd appearing at noon yesterday in front of the News-Times office from which point the performance started.)

Although the snow hindered "Texas" pulling more than eight buggies, he succeeded in dragging the heavy load about the city and exhibited his marvelous strength in this feat. He also performed several other marvelous feats which won approval of the crowd at the News-Times office.

"Texas" and a large company of singers and dancers gave a very creditable performance at the Oliver on Monday which deserved a larger audience. The show is to be repeated this afternoon and tonight.

"In the Bishop's Carriage," a Frohman-Famous Players production, one of those in which Mary Pickford, world's highest priced screen artist, reached the very height of her art and which makes her today as tremendously popular, is the program for the day only. Mary Pickford plays the day only. "Nance" in Miriam Mitchell's story made into a fascinating drama of the underworld that approaches tragedy, but ends in romance, a part particularly adapted to Mary's personality, and one not always found in every play. "Nance" plays many strange parts, but eventually adopts a role that leads to love and happiness, making this beautiful picture on your way without that tragic, unsatisfactory feeling so common to many present-day features.

NAVS PULL A LATE BATFEST ON BUFFS

IN SEVENTH WITH SCORE 2 AND
2, PUT ACROSS SIX MEN
WITH TALLIES.

DONALDS THERE WITH GOODS

Starts Only Fairly Well But Gets Better
as the Game Progresses.

Pat Newnam, manager of the Buffs, who would give a year of his life to beat the Navigators, yesterday's seventh inning must have seemed ages long. And it was a lengthy affair at that, with three men on bases practically all the time, and constantly changing singles and doubles from Navigator bats pushing in runs to the extent of a neat half dozen during that round. The final score was Waco 5, Houston 3.

At the time the delayed punch was delivered by the Skippers, the affair was in the possession of both clubs, each having registered two runs.

Crafty offense, in which sacrifice hits and squeeze plays were made the most of by the ailing Buffs to reach a sharp hit and a snappy run is becoming an effort, enabled the Navigators to put across their two early in the game. The scoring was well done and well timed, really the work of finished performers, but against the dash and confidence of a more youthful aggregation, with just old heads enough to keep up the chase, those two puny scores dwindled into insignificance when the crash came. Had Houston the pitching that a machine notably short of long, hard hitters so badly needs the result might have been different. As it was, Charlie Rose, left-hander, first wobbling, then broke completely. He was relieved by Napier, who went in with a nice kettle of fish—the bases loaded, facing the hardest hitter of a club hitting like a house and left nobody out. Napier, who was the thing continued until eleven men had taken their turns at bat in that seventh round.

Against Rose was pitted Eddie Donalds, who had some difficulties in the early innings, but picked up like a steam-driven auto in a down grade as the contest waxed hot. In the last round or so Donalds was showing signs of a splendid style that even Al Walters, to whom "stuffy" is nectar, cried out at the over abundance. Eddie was fit.

But while it was seen that Donalds was increasing his pace, it also was seen that Rose was drifting to the rocks. In the fourth, when Waco made a run on one hit, the second hit for the Skippers, only an off-colored decision by Umpire Miller prevented the locals tearing into the Buffs that early in the game. Miller called Crichlow out on a forced play at third.

An error by Rose followed immediately and a score resulted but it probably would have been two but for the bad guess. As it was, Houston held onto the lead, and the Skippers worked to tie it. They did in the sixth, and in the seventh out. loose.

Houston started the scoring in the first inning. Mowry hit to left field, Setzla bunted and went safe on a fielder's choice. Frierson grounded out, advancing both runners. McDonald squeezed with ease and Mowry scored.

In the fourth it was almost the same tale, except that Manager Pat Newnam doubled to center. Summers sacrificed, and Allen squeezed.

In Waco's fourth Crichlow started off with a hit to center field. James walked. Malmquist hit one to Rose, who pegged to McDonald at third and Miller opined that he was out. Wohlleben sent one to Newman, who threw to Rose, covering the bag, and the pitcher let it go through. James scoring. Malmquist taking third and Wohlleben going to second. Crichlow hit at a bad one and fouled out to McDonald. Walters grounded out to McDonald. Rose had gotten out of a bad-looking hole, and still looked formidable. The Navs went out one, two, three in the fifth. In the sixth with one out James walked. Malmquist dropped a Texas leaguer in right field. Wohlleben hit the fence with a single to left-center. James scoring easily. Conwell hit into a double.

With the score tied up in the seventh Walters ignited the mine that was lying unknown under the Buffs' craft. He doubled between Frierson and Davis. Donalds tried to sacrifice and Rose's error allowed him to go safe at first. Tanner hit to center, scoring Walters. Coyle hit, Crichlow hit, and Newman pulled Rose for Napier. James continued the festival with one single and Malmquist followed suit. Wohlleben added a thrill by doubling. Conwell made the first out by flying out to Mowry. Walters hit one to Napier, who put Malmquist in a chase between second and third and he was safe.

Men all over the nation—all over the world, in fact—have taken the friendly say-so and to-day P. A. is their standard before, between and after meals!

You pipe and cigarette-makin's-shy men should realize how different Prince Albert must be to hit the taste of men everywhere. The patented process fixes that—and cuts out the bite and parch.

Get a slant at how cheerful it is to smoke all the tobacco you want and smoke as long as you want without your tongue even grumbling. Men, that pipe and cigarette joy's yours sure as you're alive if you'll get your tidy red tin or topky red bag of P. A. right away—and go to it like little folks beat it to a circus parade—can't-help-it-like!

Negro Motorcyclist Who Ran Into Girl Is Given $50 Fine

Ollie Robinson, the negro who was driving the motorcycle that struck 3-year-old Winnie Snyder on South Eleventh street Sunday morning, received a $50 fine in Judge Wren's court yesterday morning. The negro expressed grief at the accident, and pleaded to be allowed to pay all the medical expenses of the little girl. To raise money for this he proposed to sell his motorcycle. Tom Caldwell Grows Some Very Big Figs

While McLennan county soil has never been noted as being specially adapted to the culture of figs, Tom Caldwell of 426 South Eleventh street brought to this office yesterday two of the finest samples of figs we have ever seen. They measured eight and one-quarter inches in circumference in two different directions, and had not lost any of their fine flavor in assuming such a size. While there are comparatively few fig trees in the city, the yield is very promising.

1916 Model Buick Is Triumph of Skill and Art of Builder

When the Buick Motor company announced their intentions to build nothing but six cylinder cars for 1916, greater interest than was ever known before was manifested in this very popular line of cars and when it became generally known what a wonderful car is being offered at a price that has heretofore been prohibitive, a general flood of orders is sure to follow. The light six Buick which has created such a stir is a most beautiful car in appearance; it has 115-inch wheel base, a valve in head, 45 horsepower motor, cantilever rear springs, full floating rear axle, with double rows of ball-bearings, spiral bevel gears, gas tank in rear with the famous Stewart Vacuum system, one-man top with curtains rolled neatly inside, genuine leather upholstery over genuine curled hair; Delco starting, lighting and ignition system, speedometer, ammeter, motor driven horn, double bulb electric headlights, full tool equipment, and sells for $985. f. o. b. factory, which is just $250 less than the famous C. 37 four cylinder Buick; a roadster sells for $950, a coupe for —, a Sedan for —. The big six is somewhat similar to the 1915 six, but has been refined and beautified and the price has been reduced $200. A large roadster is included, very similar to the one that was so popular for 1915. It now sells for $1450 f. o. b. factory.

department of the Herrick Hardware company, is in Dallas today and promises to have on exhibition here one of the smaller sixes on Wednesday, June 16, and invites every man, woman and child in Waco to call and see this wonderful car, whether you are ready to buy or not. It will do you good to look it over and will be an eye-opener as to values for the coming season. Mr. Brown says a number of orders have already been received and a big business is expected.

TEXAS POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

CONFERENCE TODAY TO PLAN RACE MEET

REPRESENTATIVES OF 80 FAIRS INVITED TO MEET IN WACO THIS MORNING.

WELL KNOWN HORSEMAN HERE

W. O. Foote of Bonham Enthusiastic Over Prospects of Forming Circuits in Lone Star State.

A summer race meet for the Cotton Palace the latter part of August will probably result from the conference between the Cotton Palace officials and prominent stockmen of Waco and the state which will be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 11 o'clock this morning. The Texas Federation of Fairs has sent out invitations to representatives of eighty fairs in the state to be present at the meeting. A syndicate of Waco horsemen has proposed to conduct the summer races, another meet to be held in the fall during the exposition.

It is planned to establish three racing circuits, one probably interstate, and provide ten weeks' racing in each circuit. At the last meeting of the Cotton Palace directors it was voted to authorize at once the construction of the grandstand and track planned for the new grounds obtained from the city. The proposal of the Waco horsemen to run summer races on the grounds was left to a committee composed of L. M. Mize, chairman of the grounds committee; J. J. Abernathy, chairman of the livestock committee; W. W. Pryor, chairman of the building committee, and Commissioners E. F. Carroll and Frank G. Adams, appointed by President Asher Sanger. The conference this morning is the result of their work.

W. O. Foote of Bonham, one of the best known horsemen in Texas, is here to attend the meeting, and said yesterday that he was confident that some of the best horses in the state would be brought here if the circuit considered were arranged. He is enthusiastic over the situation of the Cotton Palace grounds and declared them ideal from a racing standpoint. He said it was a big advantage in having the track right in town, instead of having to go way out into the country, as in many places.

Mr. Foote is the only Texan who has sold two fine racing horses for export. After breaking the world's record for a 3-year-old with Governor Francis, Mr. Foote sold him for export to Vienna, and he was later taken to Italy. John Kirby, another of his fine horses, was taken to Petrograd. Although he has already entered his horses in races in the northern circuits, Mr. Foote says that he will withdraw them and keep them in Texas if the proposed circuits are established. He is well known as a driver in both the grand circuit and the Great Western circuit.

Long Illness Is Fatal at Last to G. C. Barnard, Jr.

George C. Barnard, aged 35, died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Barnard, 117 Rose street, East Waco. Funeral will be held from the residence at 4 o'clock this afternoon with burial in Oakwood cemetery. Rev. W. P. Meroney, pastor of the Turner street Baptist church, will conduct the ceremony.

Mr. Barnard had been ill for some time. He was born and reared in Waco, and was known and loved by everyone. Besides his father and mother, he is survived by two brothers and three sisters.

Following are the pall bearers for the funeral this afternoon: T. C. Shepard, A. H. Hays, Charles Carlton, Charles Osborne, R. C. Buchanan and Charles Eichelberger. Funeral will be in charge of Undertaker L. C. Puckett.

Ford Automobile to Carry Waco Party to Big California Show

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cruger, with the Misses Nettie Autrey and Marie Blocker, will be an auto party which will leave Waco the latter part of this week for the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. The trip will be made in a Ford machine by the turning the party will spend some time in Yellowstone national park. Ample time will be taken going and coming to get the full benefit of scenery along the route, and many historical points will be visited.

H. M. Baine Goes to Chicago as C. of C. Delegate

H. M. Baine, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was yesterday morning selected to represent the organization at the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, which will be held in Chicago beginning June 20. The selection of Mr. Baine by the Chamber of Commerce completes the list of commercial organizations of the city. Delegates had already been designated by the Y. M. C. E. L., the Rotary club and the Ad club.

Walk-Over Shoes Walk Away With Big Prize

The local agency of the Walkover Boot Shop, 617 Austin avenue, was delighted yesterday upon the receipt of a telegram announcing that the highest award in shoes at the Panama-Pacific exposition had been awarded to the manufacturers of Walkover shoes. The telegram read: "Panama-Pacific exposition judges give the grand prize, the highest possible award, to George E. Keith company for Walkover shoes." All of the various factors entering into the manufacture of shoes—material, style and workmanship—were taken into consideration in making the award.

HUMAN INTEREST IN ADS TO GET RESULTS

DAY OF MERE SPACE FILLING HAS PASSED, W. V. CRAWFORD TELLS CLUB.

NEWSPAPERS ARE BEST MEDIUM

Intelligent and Honest Advertising Will Bring Success, He Says.

Human interest advertising is the kind that gets results, and the best place to put that advertising is in the newspapers, declared W. V. Crawford, advertising manager for Sanger Bros., in an address before the Rotary club at its regular meeting at the State House yesterday. "Newspaper copy never fails," he said, "if it embodies the truth about what you have to sell, if it is human and interesting, and if it is instructive."

Mr. Crawford said, in part: "I will simply try to touch upon one phase of advertising copy and that is the necessity for the touch of human interest in advertising. Of course, if you feel and believe that all you want for the money you pay over to the newspaper at the end of the month is to see your name in print, all this does not apply. But if you want to see on other side of the big dollar an amount that justifies what you pay for your advertising, it does, to my mind, apply. W. V. Crawford is the pioneer in this human interest in advertising copy. His faith in newspaper advertising, his faith in the kind of newspaper advertising that talked right over in meeting to the people—was the advertising that stirred up a new era in advertising writing. Whenever the merchant gets it out of his head that he must advertise just because the other fellow does, that he must settle down and find the reason why he wants to advertise and then realize that his advertising must be human, must be full of interest, must be instructive, must be compelling, then he will begin to get maximum results. And then he will begin to realize that advertising is something more than contributing your share toward keeping a newspaper in town. Newspaper copy never fails if it is human, interesting and if it is instructive."

Look at Matter from One Angle.

"Too many merchants that write their own copy can only look at things from behind a counter and who ought to handle their advertising. They know how to buy, how to mark their goods and how to display them, but they don't look at them through the eyes of the man on the other side of the counter. The majority of advertisements printed in the great daily papers of New York are mere type effects and price bulletins and the one who produces this style of advertising claim that New Yorkers are too busy and do not have the time to become interested in human interest advertising. But let us see. A little investigation brings one to the conclusion that there is as much human interest in New York City as anywhere. W. V. Crawford with a store that is supposed to be far away from what is known as the shopping center of New York does the greatest business of any store in New York.
